WABASH ADVANCE TO TIDEWATER

Eight Successive Steps Taken Involving an Expenditure of More Than $73,000,000.

In reviewing the steady advance of the edo, the Wall Street Journal says:

There have been eight successive steps n the progress of the Wabash to tidewaer, which have involved an expenditure f more than $73,000,000.

In every one of these items the initia xpense was met by a syndicate subscription. The exact personnel of each syndiate has never been disclosed, but the following names may be taken to represent nearly, if not quite, all interests involved in this steady accumulation of property and steady expenditure of cash:

property and steady expenditure of cash:
George J. Gould Myron T Herrick.
Howard Gould, Winslow S. Pierce, Alrin Krech, Joseph Ramsey, Jr.; Louis
Fitzgerald, John T. Terry, John W.
Gates, James H. Hyde, Cornelius Vanderbilt, James Parmelee, A. H. Calef, S.
B. Elkins, R. C. Kerens, Walter Scranton, E. L. Fuller, Cyrus J. Lawrence and Russell Sage.

The majority of these were members of the Western Maryland syndicate. John D. Rockefeller and Senator Clark are believed to be also deeply interested in the syndicate, but no confirmation of the beelect can be obtained. Their names are, therefore, omitted.

Taking into consideration the fact that the syndicate calls on Western Maryland and the Pittsburg, Carnefle and Western syndicate are known to have aggregated about $50,000,000 all of which is at present practically unfunded, the total of $75,000,100 is probably below, rather than above, the actual amount of cash now owing to the syndicates on account of the creation of the teem Gould line from Toledo to
